EXTERNAL LOAD BY POSITION — GPS COMPARISON

Charge externe

DATA AVAILABILITY NOTICE

GPS external load data (distance, high-intensity metrics) is currently unavailable for the requested period (1–7 March 2026). Position-based comparison of external load cannot be completed at this time. Please verify data collection and synchronization processes with the GPS provider.

Once data becomes available, the analysis will compare total distance, high-speed running distance, sprint distance, and acceleration/deceleration counts across positional groups (defenders, midfielders, forwards) to identify role-specific load patterns and ensure balanced distribution of external demands.
